37 Who Saw Murder Didn't Call the Police

*Apathy at Stabbing of Queens Woman
Shocks Inspector*

By MARTIN GANSBERG
For more than half an hour
38 respectable, law-abiding citizens in Queens watched a killer
stalk and stab a woman in three separate attacks in K Gardens.
Twice their voices
and the sudden glow of their bedroom lights interrupted him and frightened him off. Each

What if the interruption is actually God's appointment?

DIVINE INTERRUPTION

“God, are You trying to get my attention?”

Luke 10:25-37 (NIV)

²⁵ On one occasion an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. “Teacher,” he asked, “what must I do to inherit eternal life?” ²⁶ “What is written in the Law?” he replied. “How do you read it?” ²⁷ He answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind’; and, ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’”

Luke 10:25-37 (NIV)

²⁸ “You have answered correctly,” Jesus replied. “Do this and you will live.” ²⁹ But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbor?” ³⁰ In reply Jesus said: “A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, when he was attacked by robbers. They stripped him of his clothes, beat him and went away, leaving him half dead.

Luke 10:25-37 (NIV)

³¹ A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. ³² So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. ³³ But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him.

Luke 10:25-37 (NIV)

³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. Then he put the man on his own donkey, brought him to an inn and took care of him. ³⁵ The next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

Luke 10:25-37 (NIV)

³⁶ “Which of these three do you think was a neighbor to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?” ³⁷ The expert in the law replied, “The one who had mercy on him.” Jesus told him, “Go and do likewise.”

When we respond to God's interruptions, ordinary moments become divine opportunities.

What happens when we allow God
to interrupt our lives for others?

“The Bloody Way”

Luke 10:31 (NIV)

³¹ A priest happened to be going down the same road, and when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:32 (NIV)

³² So too, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

Luke 10:33 (NIV)

³³ But a Samaritan, as he traveled, came where the man was; and when he saw him, he took pity on him.

Luke 10:34-35 (NIV)

³⁴ He went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. 'Look after him,' he said, 'and when I return, I will reimburse you for any extra expense you may have.'

James 2:14-17 (NIV)

¹⁴ What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds? Can such faith save them? ¹⁵ Suppose a brother or a sister is without clothes and daily food.

James 2:14-17 (NIV)

¹⁶ If one of you says to them, “Go in peace; keep warm and well fed,” but does nothing about their physical needs, what good is it?

¹⁷ In the same way, faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.

Loving our friends and sharing the good news is not just a programme; it is a lifestyle.

How many of us will go through all that for a stranger?

Through his actions, the Samaritan revealed God's heart of love and compassion for us.

1 John 3:17-18 (NIV)

¹⁷ If anyone has material possessions and sees a brother or sister in need but has no pity on them, how can the love of God be in that person? ¹⁸ Dear children, let us not love with words or speech but with actions and in truth.

Matthew 5:16 (NIV)
