NOAH'S ARK

We have began our 7 weeks teaching series on Noah's Ark story. By the end of this series, your child will have memorized the story of how Noah saved all the animals and his own family because he obeyed God and built an ark. Your child will have loads of fun as the story will be told using Pretend Play approach!

The Importance of Pretend Play

Through Pretend Play your child will learn by imagining and doing. The process of Pretend Play builds skills in many essential developmental areas – moral development skill of empathy, self esteem; understand the difference between fantasy and reality, power of language, building vocabulary and problem solving.

Parts of Story with Pretend Play

Below are suggested parts of Noah's Ark story that you can do Pretend Play with your child:

Wording	Action
God was sad when He saw sinfulness of men	Get child to make a sad face
Noah was a good man	Child to do 'thumbs up'
God commanding Noah to build an ark	Use loud thundering voice
Noah began to build ark	Help Noah build ark using toy tools
Rained for 40 days and night	Wiggle fingers to imitate rain fall
Dove fly	Hands to flap and 'fly' like a bird
Rainbow appeared	Arms draw an arch overhead

The Memory Verse

This series is taken from Genesis 6:22.

Word	Action
Noah	Bend and walk like an old man
Did	Clinched both fists, place them on top of one another
Everything	Both hands facing the children and do circular movement
Just as God	Both pointer fingers pointing up
Commanded him	Right pointer finger takes a request (order) from the mouth and send it forth
Genesis 6:22	Hands like an open bible
