

BLOCK TOWER

Try to build a block tower up to the ceiling without any help. You'll find that at some point the tower will either fall or it can't be completed. Mummies and daddies, you can discuss about how the people in the Bible story were proud and thought they didn't need God's help. Talk about why it's important to ask God to help us and what is something you'd want His help with.

MUMMY/DADDY SAYS

The people in the story did not follow God's instructions to them. Practice following instructions by playing the game "Simon Says" together as a family, but change the word to "Mummy says" or "Daddy says". You can even use different languages so that children you can learn different instructions in different languages.

T is for Tower of Babel

HELLO AROUND THE WORLD

Something that came about from the Tower of Babel was that the Earth was filled with people of different countries who spoke different languages.

Learn how to say hello in different languages through this simple craft!

- Take a piece of A4 paper and draw 10 speech bubbles - 5 on each side
- Write down how to say "hello!" in as many different languages as you can, saying each one so that your child learns these new words too
- If you need help, mummy and daddy can look up other languages using Google Translate

T is for Tower of Babel